

Springville Office

Edwin Heidelberger, MD obtained his medical degree from the State University of New York at Buffalo School of Medicine and Biomedical Sciences concurrent with a Ph.D. in physiology. He completed a combined residency in internal medicine and pediatrics at the State University of New York at Buffalo. He has been with the BCH Primary Care since December 2013.

Tracy E. Fabian, DO, completed her residency at the University of Buffalo Osteopathy Family Medicine Association with Sisters of Charity Hospital. She received her Doctorate of Osteopathic Medicine from Edward Via College of Osteopathic Medicine. Dr. Fabian is Board Certified through the American Osteopathic Board of Family Physicians. She provides services for newborn, pediatric, adult, geriatric and gynecological treatment and care. She has been with BCH Primary Care since August of 2022.

Dean Brewer Jr., DO is a Board-Certified Family Medicine Physician since 2011 who specializes in all age groups newborns to geriatrics, able to address complex disease processes and provide a wide range of in office procedures. He is a United States Military Academy at West Point Graduate who served in the active duty U.S. Army for 12 years and continues to serve in the U.S. Army Reserves. Dr. Brewer has been with BCH Primary Care since November of 2024.

Melissa Fanton, PA provides comprehensive medical care from adolescents to adults, including women's health care. She has a Master's in Physician Assistant Studies from Daemen College. Melissa has been practicing as a physician assistant since 2006 and has been with BCH Primary Care since June 2015.

Kenneth Dabolt, PA is a resident of Sardinia and earned his Physician Assistant degree from Daemen College. He specializes in management of chronic comorbidities including diabetes, hypertension, heart failure, and COPD. He loves taking care of people in this community as he himself grew up in the community. He has been with BCH Primary Care since June 2018.

Erin Warning, PA, earned both her Bachelors of Science and Masters of Science from Daemen University. She has a wealth of experience with in-home health assessments, as well as working in group homes and with developmentally disabled patients. Erin has been with BCH Primary care since May of 2022.

Arcade Office

Sydney Domanowski, DO was born and raised in Western New York and attended The University at Buffalo for her Bachelor's degree in Biomedical Sciences and Professional Ethics. She went on to graduate from Lake Erie College of Osteopathic Medicine and completed her Family Medicine Residency at Sisters of Charity Hospital in Buffalo, NY. Dr. Domanowski is Board Certified through the American Osteopathic Board of Family Medicine. She has been with BCH Primary Care since August 2023.

Hannah Windsor, RN, FNP-BC is a Board-Certified Nurse Practitioner specializing in adult, geriatric and home care with additional experience in hospice/palliative care. She received a Bachelor of Science Degree in Nursing from D'Youville University in Buffalo and went on to receive a Master of Science Family Nurse Practitioner Degree from the same University.

Ashley Bartz, PA-C is a Board-Certified Physician Assistant with a focus on wellness. In addition to family medicine, Ms. Bartz has extensive experience in dermatology, skilled in conducting medical examinations, managing patients, providing counseling and education, and performing minor skin procedures. She is a graduate from Daemen College with a Bachelor of Science in Health Science/ Master of Science in Physician Assistant Studies with a minor in Biology.